to approach that Forum for redressal of their grievances.

2. Under the circumstances, it is directed that the Registry shall return the petition to the petitioners for presentation before the Tribunal. The petitioners shall present the same before the Tribunal within a period of six weeks from today. If the petitioners so present the petition before the Tribunal, the Tribunal shall not consider it as a delayed petition and shall dispose it of on merits at the earliest possible, treating it as an application filed in 1985.
